

Free SEO Keyword Tools...Google literally closed its doors unless you pay:

As many of us have discovered what we knew as the top keyword research tools – Google AdWords Keyword Tool – underwent a drastic change, now known as Google AdWords Keyword Planner. In our opinion, this is not the best of changes, but hey Google is a rule unto itself. We're not fans of the new tool and looked for some FREE alternatives. And for those with a lil bit of a budget some paid alternatives. And here below are 8 Alternatives!

BELOW ARE THE FREE ALTERNATIVES:

1 Bing Keyword Research: Bing's Keyword Research Tool helps you discover keywords people are searching for on Bing with up to six months of historical search data instead of averages. It is a part of Bing Webmaster Tools.

2 Wordpot: Wordpot is a free keyword research tool that will give you keyword ideas along with daily search volume. The trade-off for it being a free tool is in their own words; current index of keywords was last compiled in 2011!

3 SEO Book Keyword Tool: SEO Book's Keyword Tool offers suggested daily search volumes, price estimates from Google AdWords, links to other keyword tools (Google Trends, Suggest, Synonyms, etc.), links to vertical databases, and is powered by Wordtracker's keyword tool. (THIS IS OUR FAVORITE)

4 Ubersuggest Ubersuggest takes suggestion tools one step further by showing you the top ten suggested keywords based on your entry plus each letter of the alphabet. So if you enter PRICE, you will get suggestions for everything from PRICE analysis to PRICE pot ☺

PAId SEO KEYWORD TOOLS:

1 Keyword Eye Keyword Eye lets you visualize your competitor's organic and paid search terms. It includes the ability to connect to Google Analytics to discover additional keyword opportunities as well as monitor incoming anchor link text; all at £9.99 per month.

2 Wordtracker Wordtracker helps you find high-performing, profitable, keywords for your business. They separate themselves from other tools by helping you find the keywords that your customers are searching when they are ready to buy. Bit pricey at $69 per month.

3 Keyword Discovery (free & paid)

Keyword Discovery is a tool that will give thousands of keyword ideas based on the search term you enter. You can use it for free for up to 50 searches to get keyword ideas, or sign up for the premium plans starting at $69.95 per month for additional keyword analysis features.

4 Advanced Web Ranking their keyword research tool gets data from Google AdWords, Google Webmaster API, Google Trends, Google Suggest, 7Search, SEMRush, Wordtracker, and Yahoo API Related Keyword Search together in one place. Basic keyword research functionality is available with plans starting at $99 for a lifetime license. Advanced keyword research functionality is available with plans starting at $399 for a lifetime license.

For more ideas check out Christie Hines blog <http://www.iacquire.com/blog/the-best-free-premium-keyword-research-tools>